

CASE STUDY:

Winyu House - Gungahlin Offices - ACT

Design with a capital D

Architect – Williams Boag – Melbourne

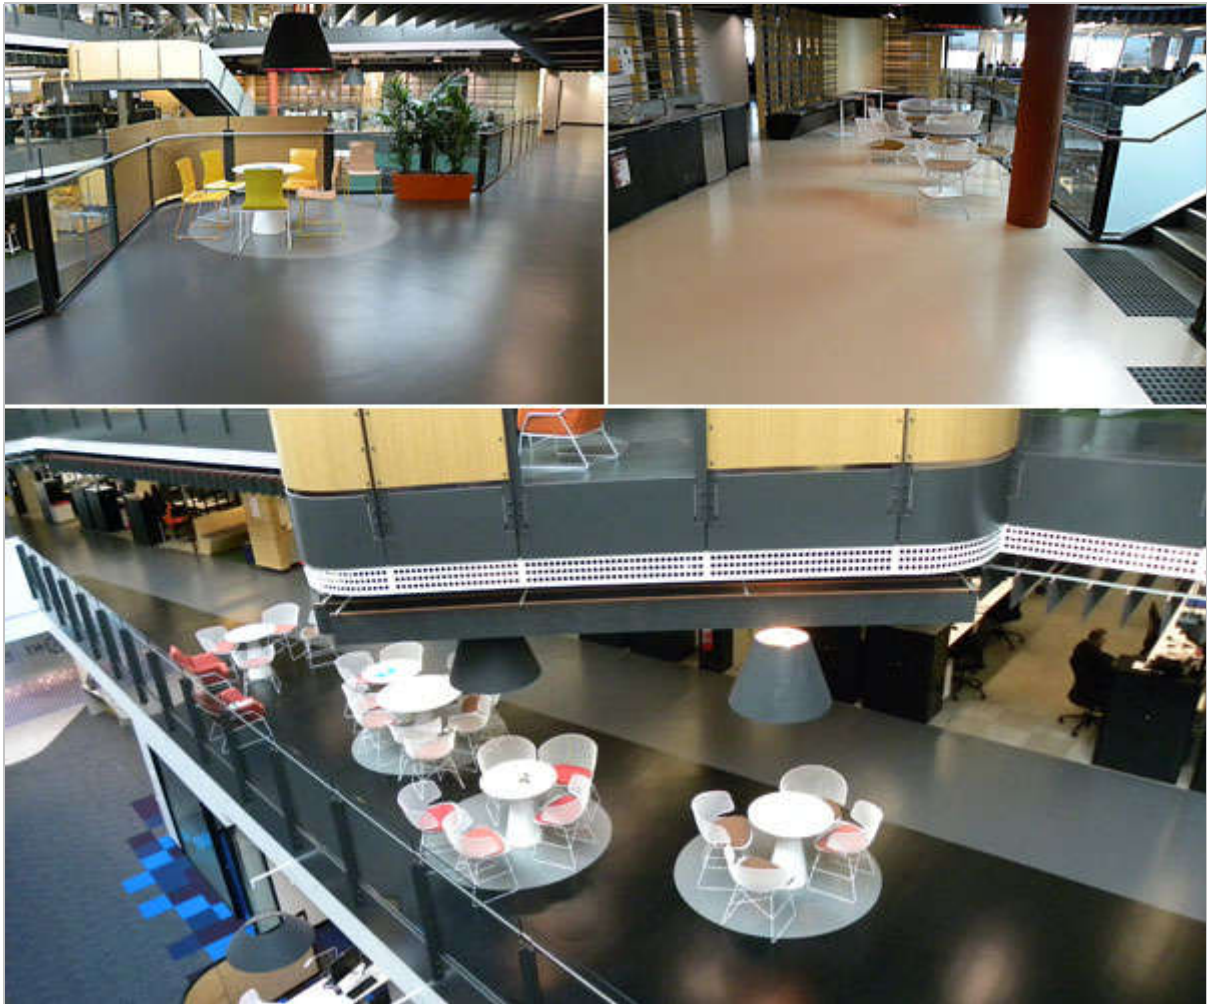

Interior Architects – Peck von Hartel – Canberra

A project with a focus on functionality but not missing design, merging the breakout areas with the meeting areas with the work zones for a facility filled by the ACT Government and owned by the KDN Group.

The SPECTRUM KAYAR was selected for the plain, clear, crisp and bright look giving excellent acoustic quality for the atrium common areas with inlay designs for the different zones.

The SPECTRUM RUBBER flooring GECA certified with proven performance and excellent low VOC's enhancing work environments with a harmonising the beat of working life. A special credit to the team that produced this outstanding facility.
